

A blurred white aircraft is visible in the background on a runway. In the foreground, a black helmet with two clear visors lies on a green lawn. The text 'FOI - Swedish Defence Research Agency' is overlaid on the left side of the image.

FOI -
Swedish Defence
Research Agency

FOI in brief

- An independent agency under the Swedish Ministry of Defence
- Financed through contracts and government appropriations for specific projects
- About 1 000 employees, of which 850 researchers
- Board, Director General and Deputy Director General are appointed by the Cabinet

Major areas of expertise

- Studies and analyses in the fields of security policy, strategy and defence
- Assessment of various types of threats
- Systems for crisis management
- Protection against and management of hazardous substances
- Information security
- Development of new sensors
- Protection against and detection of explosives

International co-operation

Multilaterally

- EU, European Union
- EDA, European Defence Agency
- Nato through Partnership for Peace

Bilaterally

- By MOU's between Sweden and other nations

Directly

- Clients in other nations

Umeå

Stockholm

Linköping

Organisation

Board of Directors

Director General
Deputy Director General

Defence analysis

CBRN defence and security

Defence and Security, Systems and Technology

Sensor and EW Systems

Information and Aeronautical Systems

Research Support and Administration

Income by customer 2014

Total: 1 101 MSEK

FOI – Division for Defence Analysis

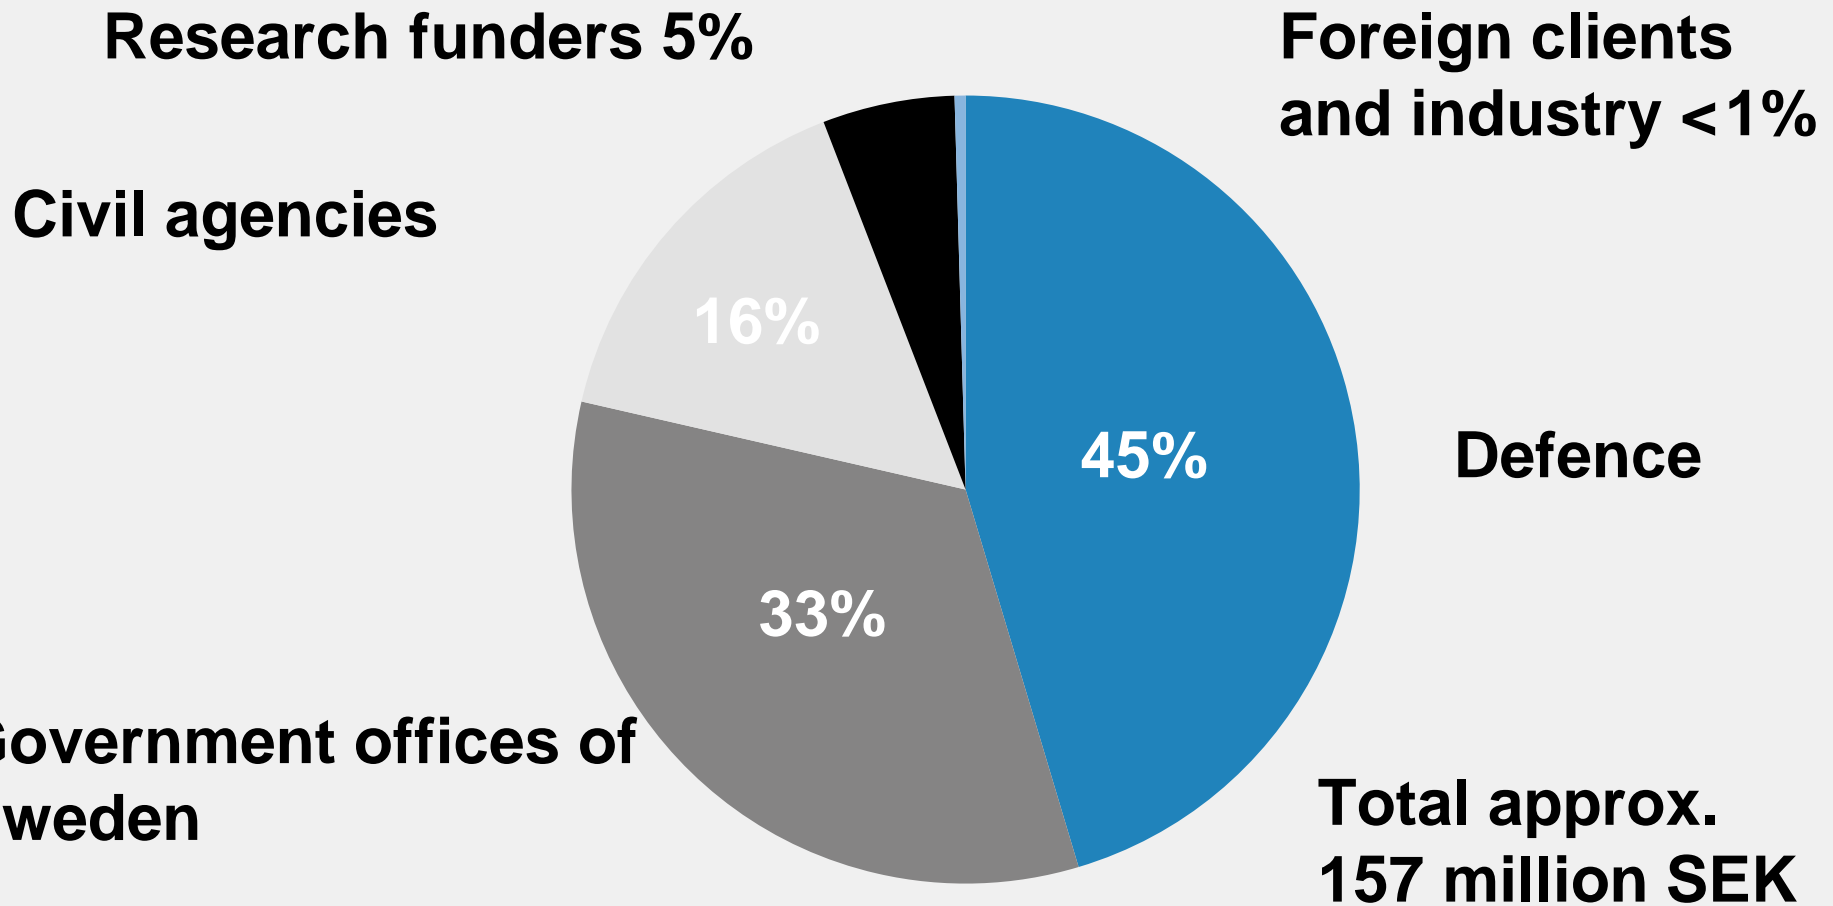

A Forward-looking Analysis Organisation

- Providing highly qualified, policy relevant analysis and decision support
 - Ability to formulate and handle complex problems
 - Relevance and usefulness for clients
 - Contributing to a more effective and efficient defence and security sector
- Analysts and research personnel with a wide range of academic disciplines and professional experiences
 - Qualified domain and methodology knowledge
 - Combining research, studies and embedded advisory support

Decision support in defence and security

- Assessment of the strategic environment – consequences and drivers for change
- Strategic and long term planning – handling uncertainty
- Assist in capability development and innovations for defence and security
- Assist in operational planning
- Support in missions and readiness
- Monitoring and evaluation of operations and exercises

Revenues – Defence Analysis 2014

Our Competency Groups

Appr. 140 analysts/researchers

Security Policy and Strategic Studies

Security Policy Analysis

Regions and countries
Multilateral organizations

Strategic Studies

Political, economic and military development, military strategic thinking

Thematic Studies

The Ukraine, nuclear policy, defence expenditures

Peace Support Operations

International military, civilian, and civil-military engagements

- Trends in contemporary missions and operations
- The UN, EU, NATO and the AU as crisis management instruments
- Monitoring and Evaluation of civilian, military and civil-military operations
- Support to analysis, planning, execution and assessment of operations
- Operational environment assessments and conflict analyses, e.g., in Africa

Strategy and Policy

- Analysis and decision support in strategic matters and processes in defence and security
 - Defence policy
 - Strategic planning
 - Civil defence
 - Handling strategic uncertainty
 - Intelligence methodology

Defence Economics

Defence logistics

Strategic materiel supply

Mobility and sustainability

Human resources

HR reform in the Swedish Armed Forces

Defence Economics

Management

Cost calculations

Capabilities and Concepts

Studies and embedded advisory support in, e.g.,:

- Military capability development
- Tactical and operational level capability assessments
- Support to planning, execution, and evaluation of exercises
- Support to national and international concept development and experimentation processes

Societal Security and Safety

- Development, assessment and direction for crisis preparedness
- Analysis and assessment of threats, risks and vulnerabilities
- Assessing consequences and proposing measures
- Essential services
- Support to planning, execution and evaluation of exercises
- Methodology development

More information

www.foi.se

FOI – research for a safer world